Sean & Lisa Radke #16663

Sean first went to Japan as a college student for a summer of campus ministry in Tokyo. A native of Birmingham, Ala., his experience living in the heart of Japanese culture where less than 0.3 percent of the population are Christians left a deep impression on him and began his sense of calling. Sean met Lisa, who grew up in Evansville, Ind., soon after his time in Japan and they married in 2002.

Sean received a master of divinity degree and Lisa a master of arts in counseling from Covenant Theological Seminary. He went on to serve as an assistant minister at The Church of the Good Shepherd (PCA) in Durham, N.C., for over four years.

Sean and Lisa are a part of MTW's church-planting team in Tokyo, which focuses on building relationships with and discipling Japanese men and women. Lisa serves as a mother of three and offers hope to women through counseling. Their prayer is to see a gospel-centered, church-planting movement among the people of Tokyo through Jesus Christ.
