RICHARD AND ANGELICA RAMSAY #016500

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION

Richard is from Dodge City, Kansas. After going to Chile in 1978 to teach in seminary he met Angelica, who is from Concepción, Chile. They were married in 1984 and were involved in teaching, leadership training, and church planting in Chile for 21 years.

In 1999, Richard and Angelica moved to Miami to work with international leadership training. Rich has been on loan to "Universidad FLET"

(Faculty of Latin American Education in Theology), preparing courses, traveling to teach classes, and programming Internet courses. He is the director of the systematic theology department and director of the Internet program. He also teaches classes for "Miami International Seminary," and has published several books in Spanish.

Cuba, where he has been teaching classes to over 300 students, has been a key part of Rich's ministry over the last years. He has also raised funds to print thousands of copies of discipleship books to be used in the midst of an evangelical revival there. Please pray for the Ramsays as they minister in theological education throughout Latin America.
