JESSICA RINGSMUTH #29173

Jessica's journey in missions began through a summer trip to Australia with MTW and Campus Outreach in 2000. After graduating from Berry College in 2001, Jessica began working in the MTW home office while praying about possibilities to serve overseas. God eventually led her to pursue a master's degree in professional counseling from Richmond Graduate University, with the desire to use these skills in a cross-cultural context. God solidified her calling after she became the MTW summer internship team leader to Kenya in 2006. This grew her passion to use counseling to minister to HIV- positive people and to shepherd interns.

God has orchestrated a unique fit for Jessica as a part of MTW's AIDS Care and Treatment project in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. Jessica will provide trauma and grief counseling for children and teenagers who have been abused and orphaned, in addition to assisting with the internship program. This project cares for the profound physical, spiritual, and psychological needs of HIV-positive urban poor, while laying groundwork for a church-planting movement. Nearly 500 families currently receive food, shelter, medical care, counseling, Bible study, and discipleship. Please pray for Jessica and her MTW and Ethiopian team members as they share God's gospel of healing grace.
