STEVE AND AMY ROBERTSON #16521 CHURCH PLANTING

Steve and Amy Robertson long to see the gospel redeem lives and bring life-permeating transformation through all levels of society in Guadalajara, Mexico. They desire to see a church-planting movement ignited that will reconcile Mexicans to Christ and to each other.

Steve grew up in Tuscaloosa, AL, and Amy is from Augusta, GA. They met through the ministry of Reformed University Fellowship at Vanderbilt University and were married in August 1996. They had been praying about ministry in Mexico for some time when God gave them an opportunity to serve with a church-planting team in Guadalajara from May 2000-Sept 2002. Believing that further training would be helpful for long-term ministry, the Robertsons then moved to St. Louis, so Steve could receive his M.Div. from Covenant Theological Seminary.

The Robertsons are eager to return to the field in Guadalajara to preach God's Word, train and disciple men, and nurture and disciple women and families. They pray that God will build biblically solid churches that will multiply throughout the city. They ask for your prayers for their complete reliance on Christ, for Mexicans to seek life in Christ, and for family health.
