JIM AND KARAN ROMAINÉ #16607

Jim and Karan, both New Jersey natives, each received a call to missions during short-term missions trips they took during college. Jim is an ordained minister and has a D.Min. in missions, and Karan has a Ph.D. in counselor education.

Jim and Karan have been ministering in the Middle East, Central Asia, and Africa for nearly 40 years. They pioneered a new field, built a ministry team, planted a church, and served as field leaders. Jim has served as the director of the Central Asian Study Center and the Turkic World Ministries of the Zwemer Center. Their ministries have included church planting, evangelism, leading Bible study groups, developing a national radio follow-up ministry, and training national workers and pastors.

Please pray for Jim and Karan as they have begun a new ministry with ethnic people in the greater New York City area. This ministry has a U.S. and overseas connection to create more church-planting synergy both in NYC and internationally. The vision is for this to be a ministry that is worldwide and global city-centered.
