PETE AND RENEE ROMAN #16611

Pete and Renee both grew up in the Charleston, SC area. They each received Christ at a young age and grew up active in their local churches. Renee attended Appalachian Bible College and received a Certificate in Biblical Studies in 2000. Shortly after returning home from school, she and Pete met at Metro North Church. They were married in January 2003. In 2004, Pete graduated from Charleston Southern University with a BS in Business Administration.

In 2005 Pete and Renee accompanied a team from their church on a mission trip to Bulgaria. The Lord opened their hearts and eyes to the needs of the Bulgarian people and they had a desire to serve again. The following year they returned for a one-month internship and began to sense a call to serve longer term. In 2007, Pete and Renee were approved to serve with Mission to the World as two-year missionaries in Bulgaria.

Pete and Renee are very excited and pleased that God has indeed confirmed the sense of call on their lives. They will become part of the MTW team in Sofia, Bulgaria where they will be involved in evangelism, discipleship, and mercy ministry outreach to the Roma (gypsy) communities.
