BILL AND PAM SCHWEITZER #17069

Bill is a native of Tampa and came to Christ while an enlisted Marine. He attended the University of Rochester through NROTC, and served eight years active duty as an officer. Pam is from South Glens Falls, N.Y., and came to faith while a student at William Smith College. Bill and Pam were married in 1997.

Bill's final military assignment was an exchange tour in England. He then left the Marines to complete his ministerial degree (Free Church of Scotland College) and a Ph.D. in the theology of Jonathan Edwards (Edinburgh University). In 2007, the EPCEW, a British Westminster Confession denomination of 12 churches, invited Bill to plant a new church in the Newcastle/Gateshead metro area. Two years of prayer and Bible studies later, Gateshead Presbyterian Church (GPC) was begun. Through evangelistic Bible studies and the blessing of God, the church is growing slowly but steadily. Several other church plants are in the works in this metro area of one million people, and the Schweitzers' vision is to see GPC built up and actively helping to plant these churches.
