JOHN AND SUSAN SHANE #16814

John was born to missionary parents in Recife, Brazil. He came to faith while serving in the U.S. Army and was discipled through the ministry of the Navigators. Susan grew up and came to faith in Christ in Kingsport, Tenn. She graduated from King College in 1972 and taught Latin and English for several years. John and Susan met while ministering to military personnel at Fort Bragg.

After they married, the Shanes lived in Raleigh, N.C., where John completed his B.S. in forestry. They attended Columbia International University where John earned an M.Div. and an M.A. and Susan completed the certificate program. Through this training and missions exposure, the Lord led them to pursue missionary service.

The Shanes labored for 14 years in Nairobi, Kenya, equipping churches for ministry in Africa's growing cities. In 1998 John became regional director for MTW's southern Africa region. He is now responsible for missionary oversight and care, recruiting, placement, and relationships with African churches and partners throughout the 11 countries of the region. Susan ministers in various ways in the community and their church.

John is ordained in Palmetto Presbytery.
