RON AND PEG SMITH #016829

Ron and Peg met at a Bible study in Washington, DC in 1981 and married in 1983. Being unsuccessful at starting a family, Ron and Peg pursued an international adoption, culminating in a six-week trip to South America, where they adopted their son, Benjamin. Ten months later, Peg gave birth to Allison! The Lord opened their hearts to overseas missions on that trip, so they left Washington to attend Reformed Theological Seminary.

Following seminary and Ron's ordination, the Smiths joined MTW and served in Guayaquil, Ecuador for nine years. They began English conversation clubs and classes, children's ministries, women's Bible studies and couples' ministries. Peg taught Sunday school and trained teachers, while Ron was involved in discipling, counseling, and planting and pastoring San Agustín Presbyterian Church. In 2005 San Agustín and another congregation combined under an Ecuadorian pastor.

Now, the Smiths will open new fields of mission opportunity in the English-speaking Caribbean. Their ministries include training pastors and church planters, mentoring, challenging and encouraging leaders as they develop strategies for communicating the gospel and growing the church. In the States, they hope to develop church partnerships, encourage churches to send their pastors to teach, and recruit others to join a ministry team.
