PAUL AND SARAH TAYLOR

ASIA/PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Paul is a graduate of Taylor University, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, and Fuller Theological Seminary where he earned a doctorate of ministry. Prior to coming to MTW, Paul was the Coordinator for Church Planting with Mission to North America, serving there from 1984-1991.

Sarah, the daughter of missionaries to India, married

Paul in 1966. She has served as Teaching Leader for Bible Study Fellowship in Manila for three years while being an active member of the team.

Paul serves MTW as International Director for Asia/Pacific. He is involved in overseeing MTW's work in the 35 countries of Asia/Pacific and opening up new ministries in countries not yet served by the PCA. He also works with national leaders in places where the PCA has ministry, but no missionaries. 82% of the people living in the Asia/Pacific region are in countries that are considered "closed" or "restricted access."

Paul's new role as an International Director will free him to pursue his vision for the spread of the kingdom in Asia.
