KEN AND KIM THOMPSON #017413

Ken and Kim have been a part of MTW since 1982. Ken was born in Cuba while his parents were serving as missionaries with the West Indies Mission. He later moved from Costa Rica to Miami, where his Dad founded a new mission work called LOGOI. Early in his life Ken felt God calling him to the mission field. He attended the Moody Bible Institute where he met Kim. Upon graduation from Trinity College, Ken and Kim married and continued to pursue God's leading in missions. Ken later graduated from Reformed Theological Seminary and was ordained as a PCA minister.

Kim was born in Lansing, Michigan, and early in life sensed God calling her into missions. She has a BA degree in Christian Education from Moody Bible Institute.

The Thompsons served as coop missionaries with MTW and LOGOI for 13 years. In 1995 they moved to Atlanta where Ken later served as the Area Director for Africa and Latin America. From 2000 to 2003 Ken served as the International Director for Latin America. Ken continues in a missionary/staff position with MTW serving missionaries, national church planters and PCA partners with various special projects and mission efforts.
