WILL & JUDI TRAUB #17415

The Traubs met in 1975 on a blind date during Will's last year of studies at Westminster Theological Seminary and were married in 1976. Both Will and Judi were raised in Christian homes where foreign missions was promoted, and missionaries were often guests. Will was the pastor of Peace Reformed Church in Loveland, Colo., and Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church in Blacksburg, Va., prior to leaving for Germany, where they served from 1988-2000. Since that time, Will has been serving as coordinator of theological education and training for MTW Europe.

In 2012 the Traubs relocated to Scotland, where Will continues to coordinate theological training for MTW Europe. In addition to those responsibilities, he is assisting the pastor of St. Peter's Free Church in Dundee in the development and implementation of training for Solas—Centre for Public Christianity. This involves equipping pastors, workers, and lay people desiring to become more effective in ministry in Scotland and secular Europe, especially in the area of apologetic evangelism. He also assists the development officer for the Home Missions Board of the Free Church of Scotland in developing training in various areas as well as teaching theological courses in different locations around Scotland.
