Michael & Emily Treadwell #17464

After serving in Ethiopia with Mission to the World for two years, Michael and Emily made the decision to return long term to continue their work with children and youth in the urban slum areas of Addis Ababa among communities heavily affected by HIV/AIDS. With other MTW missionaries and a strong team of Ethiopian co-workers, they feel privileged to see the beauty of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection affect change in children and families. The Treadwells' work includes tutoring programs, vacation Bible schools, family counseling, and caring for extremely at-risk children and orphans.

The Treadwells plan to be part of continuing and expanding these ministries in the years to come. Interns and short-term teams are a vital part of accomplishing the ministry. Please join in praying that God would use these short-term missions to raise up future long-term missionaries engaged in ministries of mercy around the world. Please pray also for Michael and Emily and the MTW team as they seek to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with God (Micah 6:8).
