VITALIY AND MARISSA VOYTENKO #17953

SHARING THE GOSPEL THROUGH COUNSELING AND THE VISUAL ARTS

While on a vision trip in the summer of 2008, Vitaliy and Marissa fell in love with the west-Ukrainian city of L'viv, its historic architecture and rich culture. They felt drawn to the city not only because of its beauty, but also because of its great need. Steeped in the Greek Catholic tradition, L'viv has only a handful of evangelical churches, and the truth and freedom of the Gospel seem hard to find.

Vitaliy, a Wheaton-trained clinical psychologist, was born and raised in eastern Ukraine. Throughout his time in the States, he was captivated by the vision of returning to his home country and utilizing his training for the benefit of the Church. Marissa—a native of northern California—is a professional painter trained at Westmont College and Boston University (MFA).

Having been aware of her personal calling to missions since childhood, she is passionate about communicating the Gospel through the visual arts.

Together, Vitaliy and Marissa seek to use their respective gifts as an outreach and vehicle for relational evangelism. They join a new MTW team whose overarching goal is to plant a vibrant Ukrainian Reformed church in L'viv that will anchor a church-planting movement in the region. Please pray for the Voytenkos as they reach out to the community around them, and consider partnering with them in their mission.
