GARY AND PHYLLIS WALDECKER #018101

Gary is the son of a PCA minister and grew up in Florida. He attended Covenant College and received a B.A. in philosophy and Bible. He graduated from Covenant Seminary with an M.Div. and from Westminster Seminary with a D.Min. in urban missiology. In 2002, and at the request of MTW, he began pursuing a degree in organizational development.

Phyllis grew up in a Christian home in Delaware. She attended Covenant College, Beebe Hospital

School of Nursing, and the University of Delaware. After receiving a B.S. in nursing she worked six years in a burn treatment center. Gary and Phyllis were married in 1981.

The Waldeckers have been missionaries since 1980. Gary has served as a church planter in Chile, as the regional director for South America, and presently is the leader of a resource team for MTW missionaries in Latin America. The purpose of this team is to encourage missionaries and help them be effective in the facilitation of church-planting movements. Gary and Phyllis have developed a Christ-centered approach to personality and culture, which they have used extensively in team development, conflict resolution, and creating contextualized ministries.
