MELINDA WALLACE

Melinda was born and raised in East Lansing, Michigan. She moved to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida in 1974. Though raised in the church, she did not come to faith in Christ until 1977. She became a member of Coral Ridge and served in various ministries of the church. While on the staff of Evangelism Explosion III International, God began to stir her heart toward missions.

Melinda was invited to join the Church Planting Center in Orlando as administrative assistant. Her home church was a new church plant, and she served in various ministries, experiencing the growth of the new church.

In 1992 Melinda heard about a project called "The CoMission," and responded to God's prompting. In 1993, she began a one-year term as assistant team leader with the first Mission to the World team sent to Odessa, Ukraine. During her second year, MTW sent a team to follow up with the people who had come to faith in Christ through the work of CoMissioners. God led Melinda to make a career commitment with MTW to serve on the church planting team in Ukraine. As new churches are being established, Melinda's responsibilities involve equipping lay leadership in the areas of evangelism, discipleship, and leading Bible studies.
