GARY AND LOIS WATANABE #018106

MULTI-CULTURAL CHURCH PLANTING

Gary and Lois were both raised outside of the U.S.: Gary was born in Japan, while Lois was a missionary kid from Kenya. Gary became a Christian as an adult and the Lord soon called him to missions. Gary and Lois met at Columbia International University.

After Gary graduated from Westminster Seminary in California, the Watanabes went to Mexico with Mission to the World. They helped plant a church in Mexico City and later worked in partnership with the Mexican Presbyterian Church in Monterrey toward developing a church-planting movement.

In 2001 the Watanabes moved to the Philippines to facilitate a church-planting movement there. This involved teaching in the seminary, and mentoring and training national church planters. The Lord blessed the effort with deep spiritual growth.

With Hispanic and Asian experience, Gary and Lois believe the Lord has prepared them for ministry to immigrant church planters. They will be based out of New York City and work in partnership with the Redeemer Church Planting Center. This will again involve teaching, training, mentoring, and networking to expand the kingdom, both in New York City and then in the home countries of the immigrant church planters.

The Watanabes have three grown children: Rachel, Amanda, and Mark.
