BECKY WHITE

(#018112)

Born in Charlotte, NC, Becky grew up as a PK (preacher's kid) and became an MK (missionary kid) when her parents, David and Barbara White, moved to Taiwan in 1975. She graduated from Covenant College in 1984 with a B.A. in English and psychology. After teaching at Christ's College and working with the magazine, PCA

Messenger, she attended Fuller Seminary's School of World Mission and graduated with an M.A. in cross-cultural studies in 1989. These studies included one semester at RTS in Jackson, MS.

In 1991 Becky returned to Christ's College, a four-year Christian college that seeks to strengthen the church in Taiwan through educating, evangelizing and discipling Chinese students. Teaching in the English Department at the college offers Becky opportunities both to educate from a Christian perspective and to build relationships for deeper ministry with students through counseling and prayer. She teaches a variety of courses such as English Literature, American Literature, Bible as Literature, and College Composition.
