NATHAN AND AUDREY WILSON #18289

Despite growing up in a Christian home, Nathan didn't fully grasp the gospel until 1999, when men from Medical Campus Outreach (MCO) demonstrated the transforming power of knowing Christ. As a first-year medical student, Nathan was forever changed. He was challenged to become a healer patterned after Jesus, using physical healing to access spiritual need.

Audrey began to grow in Christ while a student at Georgia Tech. She met Nathan as a first-year medical student and they married the following year. Both spent their medical school years leading fellow medical students in Bible study and cultivating relationships. After graduating in 2003, Nathan pursued a career in pediatrics while

Now, God has authored an opportunity combining their two great passions: student ministry and medical missions. As part of a team of 11 adults and 10 children, God has called the Wilsons to pioneer a student ministry to the future healthcare providers of Peru. By modeling evangelistic healthcare through their pediatric practice and teaching, and living out the gospel in community with their team, they seek to disciple and train Peruvian healthcare students who will reach their country for Christ.
