KENTON AND KAREN WOOD

Kenton, son of missionary parents in southern Mexico, trusted Jesus at an early age. He attended Wheaton College and received a B.A. and a commission as an officer in the U.S. Army. Four years later, he returned to Wheaton for graduate studies, where he met Karen, a talented vocalist in the Conservatory of Music.

Karen came from a very musical home in Michigan, where her father was a minister. As a child, Karen also gave her life to Christ.

After they were married in 1975, they served at the Granada Presbyterian Church in Florida, where they received God's call to missionary service. They first served in Ecuador with Radio HCJB, Kenton in evangelism and Karen in music.

Then in 1985, the Woods joined the church-planting team in Acapulco and during the next nine years they started a church among the business and professional people of this resort city. In 1996, they were called to Guadalajara to begin a new work. Their vision is to impact this traditional city of six million through the establishing of a church of 1,000 that would then start other churches in strategic areas of the metropolis. As of the year 2001, they have now established a church with an attendance of 250.
