JIM AND ELLEN WROUGHTON #18125

Jim was born in Peru where his parents served with Wycliffe Bible Translators. Growing up in Peru gave Jim a familiarity with the Spanish language and culture. He graduated from Wheaton College with a B.A. in biblical studies and anthropology. Later Jim received an M.Div. from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and was ordained in the Presbyterian Church in America. In 2007 Jim completed his Ph.D. in intercultural studies through Fuller Theological Seminary.

Jim met Ellen in Dallas, where they each received an M.A. in linguistics from the University of Texas at Arlington. They were married in 1983. Ellen also holds a B.A. from Dallas Baptist University, and is a registered x-ray technician. She had served with Child Evangelism Fellowship for five years in Dallas and Costa Rica before joining Wycliffe.

In the fall of 2002, the New Testament was presented to the North Conchucos Quechua of the Peruvian Andes, and work on their Old Testament is more than halfway to completion. Just as Jim and Ellen were beginning their sixth term in Bible translation and translation consulting (September 2007), Ellen was diagnosed with glioblastoma which requires the Wroughtons to live in the Dallas area. Jim continues his translation consulting in both Dallas and Peru.
